MEDICINAL.

A Society Woman

Undergoes a greater strain than is generally realized, and every woman is a society woman in her own circle. The debts of society are many and must be paid or there will come social bankruptcy, and it is in the punctual payment of social debts, regardless of health or feelings, that women often lay the foundation for serious illness. The late hours and rich foods, common to society gatherings, soon or late derange the stomach; the liver, perhaps, becomes involved, and the heart flutters or palpitates.

There is no medicine for the cure of diseases of the stomach and organs of digestion which can equal Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It heals the stomach, purifies the blood, cleanses the clogged liver, nourishes the nerves, and gives face and form the radiant beauty of health.

"Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol, and is absolutely free from opium, cocaine and other narcotics.

Mrs. L. Hedgecock, of Dorchester, Collingsworth Co., Texas, writes: "I was troubled for seven or eight years with indigestion and liver complaint, and received most benefit from the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Pleasant Pellets' than any medicine I have ever tried."

Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure constipation.

CATARRH Nasal.

In all its stages there should be cleanliness. ELY'S CREAM BALM cleanses, soothes and heals the diseased membrane. It cures Catarrh and drives away a cold in the head quickly.

OREAM BALM is placed into the nostrils spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. It is not drying—does not produce sneezing. Large size, 50c at druggists or by mail. Trial size, 10 cents by mail. ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren Street, New York.

FOR OVER FIFTY YEARS.

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

In cases of cough or croup give the little one One Minute Cough Cure. Then rest easy and have no fear. The child will be all right in a little while. It never fails. Pleasant to take always safe, sure and almost instantaneous in effect. For sale by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

RETROSPECTION.

On the morning of the 24th of May, 1861—forty years ago the 24th of May last—the Old Dominion Rifles (afterwards Company H., 17th Virginia Infantry of the Confederate Army) composed principally of young men and boys from Alexandria, marched out silently from their homes at early dawn and proceeded to Manassas, where they were enrolled among the Confederates at that place.

A place at present surroundings in the lives of the surviving members gives a retrospective view of the events which transpired during the memorable days that followed that early morning march.

The number of the company at that time was in the neighborhood of one hundred; the total number during the war, of which we have record, was one hundred and eleven. Of these twenty-three were killed, or died in the hospital; the number of wounded ran into the forties, but the exact record is not known. Since the close of the war there have been accidentally killed—two on the railroad, one by an explosion and one lost at sea. Forty-three have died of various diseases, and forty-one are now supposed to be living. Of the who have died, as far as known, seventeen are laid to rest in our cemetery.

Of the living, ten are in Alexandria, three in Fairfax county, one in Prince William, and one in Loudoun; one in Elcomington, Va., one in A's E., one in Washington, D. C., one in the State of Georgia, four in Maryland, one in Tennessee, one in Arkansas, one in Texas, one in Louisiana, one in the State of Virginia, and one at the Soldier's Home in Richmond. There are seven who are not in the list.

After 1861, during which only one battle was participated in, the company never had anything like a "fr" quo" on the firing line. Many had been detailed for permanent duty in other parts of the field. During 1862, principally at Yorktown, thirty-four men were withdrawn for detached service, or transferred to other commands. In 1863, there were eight more withdrawn, three detached and five discharged. Besides the above the company had its regular details which helped to reduce the men on the firing line.

At Seven Pines, 1862, we were ordered into the battle about fifty men, N. Y. and dig of these twenty-three were not "in the combat." In many of the later battles ten to twenty men were considered a strong company. The average strength of the command during the four years' struggle could not have exceeded thirty-five, and when we take this fact into consideration the percentage of loss to actual numbers engaged must have been very heavy. The above is written for the benefit of those who survive. The summons to attend the final roll-call is not far distant for us all, and when the last one crosses the river of death may receive the befitting call of all who have gone before. While we remain let us keep green the memories of those who have parted company, and as our number dwindles, one by one, may the God of battles shield and protect us during our few remaining days, and finally give us all an abundant entrance into his side of eternal rest.

CHURCH SPLIT THREATENED.—A split is threatened in the John Mann Methodist Episcopal Church, Winchester, over an incident which occurred there on Sunday night during the service. The pastor, Rev. Joseph Wheeler, was absent, and Rev. W. C. Mullen, of Washington, occupied the pulpit. At a certain point in the sermon the minister punctuated the discourse with song. After one of these vocal interpolations, the minister suddenly stopped, and one of the stewards, thinking he had ended the sermon, started to take up the collection. Just then Rev. Mr. Mullen resumed the thread of his narrative, and took the steward to task for interrupting the service. A brief but pointed argument followed, which ended in the preacher taking his hat and leaving the church. A minister present dismissed the congregation. Part of the congregation sided with the invited minister, and part with the watchful steward.

WILL LOSE THEIR LICENSE.—Seven of the liquor dealers arrested Monday in Norfolk for selling liquor on Sunday were fined $25 in the police court yesterday, and Justice Taylor, in disposing of the cases, said: "I want it fully understood that if the parties fined today appear before me again for the same offense I shall refer the matter to Judge Hancock, who will be wised to revoke their licenses." Commonwealth's Attorney Venable, who was asked by Mayor Beaumont Saturday last as to the legal status of social clubs yesterday replied, saying that under ruling of the Court of Appeals of Virginia in the case of the Piedmont Club of Lynchburg all bona fide clubs which serve liquor to their members only are not amenable under the statute prohibiting the sale of intoxicants on Sunday.

CANDIDATES.

TO MY FELLOW-CITIZENS.—Being assured that it is the desire of many of my friends and fellow citizens that I should do so, I beg to announce that I am a candidate for the HOUSE OF DELEGATES in the next General Assembly of Virginia.

The adoption of a new constitution will necessarily make the next Legislature one of unusual importance to our people, and if it should be the will and pleasure of my fellow-citizens of the city and county to choose me to represent them in that body, I will to the best of my ability endeavor to serve them with fairness and fidelity to all, and without partiality to any. Subject to the action of the democratic primary.

JAMES E. CATON.

FOR THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES.

I respectfully announce myself a candidate for the HOUSE OF DELEGATES, subject to the democratic primary, and solicit the votes of my fellow citizens.

J. H. TRIMMER.

FOR THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES.

To the voters of Alexandria city and county: I announce myself a candidate for the HOUSE OF DELEGATES, subject to the democratic primary election. I most respectfully solicit your votes. I do not propose to canvass the city and county during the hot weather.
